

Native List Multilingual Numbering

- 九. Ninth item uses Chinese ideographic numbering.
- 十. Tenth item proves ten is not Latin decimal text.
 - あ. Hiragana child marker is generated from inherited level defaults.
 - い. Second hiragana child keeps native marker ownership.
- 十一. Eleventh item confirms ideographic numbering continues.
- .八 Arabic-Indic digit marker eight is generated by the list actor.
- .九 Arabic-Indic digit marker nine remains generated structure.
- .十 Arabic-Indic ten proves multi-digit substitution.
- ア. Katakana root item owns Devanagari and Thai nested levels.
 - १. Devanagari digit marker appears at the second visual level.
 - ๑. Thai digit marker appears at the third visual level.